Zulkie Partners LLC

Zulkie Partners LLC has built its reputation on the quality and character of its lawyers, many of whom are recognized leaders in the U.S. immigration law community. Collectively, our attorneys have been practicing business immigration law for more than 90 years, creating a strong foundation on which we continue to build.

Our firm understands that clients are looking for value beyond just legal expertise. With this in mind, we work hard to understand the level of involvement our clients want from us. We take time to learn about our clients' organizations and their business objectives.

Emerging Lawyer Susie Shin is a 2010 graduate of the Loyola University Chicago School of Law. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from Northwestern University in 2005. Susie is licensed to practice law in Illinois and is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA). She is an active member of the Asian American Bar Association and the Korean American Bar Association. Susie speaks both Spanish and Korean.

Jennifer Hoskin is a 2016 graduate of Loyola University Chicago School of Law. During law school, she worked as a 711-licensed law clerk with the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation and served as editor for the Beazley Institute for Health Law and Policy's online Advance Directive publication. Prior to attending law school, Jennifer was previously a paralegal with Zulkie Partners. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and Spanish from the University of Wisconsin—Madison. She is also a member of AILA.

We never forget that we have been entrusted with a very significant responsibility: helping our foreign national clients shape their lives and destinies in this country so that our business clients can retain the best and brightest talent available.
